CHAIRPERSON: Dr Pubalan Muniandy

Consultant Dermatologist

Dr. Pubalan Muniandy is at present the Senior Consultant Dermatologist and head of the Department of Dermatology in a public hospital in Kuching, Sarawak. He graduated from the University of Malaya in 1987 and completed his training in Internal Medicine in 1992 and further trained in Dermatology at the Royal Infirmary of Glasgow, Scotland and a stint at the Hospital Kuala Lumpur.

He is a registered dermatologist with the National Specialist Register. He was granted an FRCP [Edinburgh] in 2016 and continues to teach at the University Malaysia Sarawak [UNIMAS] where he is an Adjunct Professor. He has been a dermatologist in Kuching since 1993. His interests include psoriasis, acne, leprosy and STIs.

Dr Cheong has been practising dermatology since 1986 in various dermatological centres both locally and in London before going into private practice in 1995. He is currently director of the Specialist Skin Clinic and Associates, Singapore, a group practice of dermatologists in the private sector.

Dr Cheong lectures extensively on acne, atopic dermatitis, seborrhoeic dermatitis and other skin conditions like pigment disorders and the use of dermocosmetics in dermatology both locally and regionally.

He has chaired numerous regional advisory boards on common skin conditions including acne, seborrhoeic dermatitis and chronic urticaria. Most recently, he co-chaired the Singapore psoriatic arthritis virtual advisory board in February 2021.

He has conducted advanced acne workshops for dermatologists and general practitioners in the region including Taiwan, Vietnam, Malaysia, Indonesia and Singapore. He has organised workshops on the use of biologics in psoriasis and skin cancers for local dermatologists.
